Boardwalk Lodge

Alaska's Premier Fishing Lodge - Located on Prince of Wales Island

Join my teammate, Clifford Ray, and me for an amazing trip to Alaska's Boardwalk Lodge... a sportsman's paradise! Voted "Alaska Lodge of the Year" three times and the "North America Lodge of the Year for 2010", this breathtaking oceanfront lodge offers the best of both worlds: exceptional saltwater and freshwater fishing.

This world-class fishing lodge bears the elite Orvis endorsement — demonstrating its exceptional fishing, facilities and commitment to excellence as one of the best fishing lodges in Alaska. Their Orvis endorsed guides lead daily freshwater excursions with your choice of 23 lakes, rivers and streams nearby. USCG certified skippers operate their fleet of 28-foot boats for saltwater adventures — targeting Halibut, Chum Salmon, Silver Salmon, Pink Salmon, Dolly Varden and several other species. This trip will feature fishing for King Salmon.

The lodge is located in the lush rainforest of Prince of Wales Island, just 35 minutes from Ketchikan in Southeast Alaska. At Boardwalk Lodge, it's not just about the fishing. The lodge staff works tirelessly to ensure your Alaska adventure will be most memorable.

Lodge guests receive first-class accommodations.

There is a queen and twin bed in the double rooms.

Guests dine on gourmet cuisine and choose from the surf and turf entrees each evening.

High protein selections include omelets, eggs cooked to order, and a wide selection of breakfast meats and sausages. Beverages include gourmet coffees and teas, hot chocolate, a selection of juices, milk, and smoothies.

You select your lunch and it is put on the boat or carried for you by your guide, along with drinks.

If you can't make it for these days, contact me and I will help you with booking another time, with the same discounted rate.

These prices are at a special 10% discount and include lodging, all meals, soft drinks, beer and house wine, the flight to and from Ketchikan and the lodge, a fishing license for each attendee and a 50-pound box of filleted salmon, halibut or other fish to take home (if you fish for and catch those species).

Also included is all fishing gear, including boots and waders for freshwater fishing. However, anyone with exceptionally big feet or bigger than a XXXL, might not be able to be accommodated. Any guest may bring his/her own fishing gear. The only real necessities to bring are a good pair of polarized sunglasses, sunscreen, a bathing suit for the hot tub, fleece or long underwear for under waders and a waterproof Gore-Tex, hooded fishing jacket, for freshwater fishing. Of course, a video and/or still camera is also highly recommended. Special requests for soft drinks, alcohol and any special dietary requirements are happily accepted. The lodge does not provide alcohol, but you can bring your own.

Not included are gratuities for the guides, captains and staff (at least 10% of the normal cost of the trip is suggested) and the cost of round trip airfare from your home to Ketchikan.

You must arrive into Ketchikan no later than 5 PM and we recommend that you do not schedule a flight out of Ketchikan before 12 PM in case of fog in the morning.

It is strongly suggested to make arrangements for a trip in 2015 as far in advance as is possible because the dates at the lodge get booked quickly and getting flights to Alaska in the summer can be difficult if they are not made months in advance.

Prior to the trip, Rick will discuss the various fishing options available. The size of the group and the number of fishing days will impact the choices of fishing available. Regardless of the type of fishing chosen, whoever goes on this memorable trip will enjoy the companionship and stories Rick and Clifford will tell each day at breakfast, dinner or while fishing. This is a unique opportunity to get to know one of the greatest basketball players in history up close and personal, along with his great friend, the starting center on the Golden State Warriors 1975 NBA Championship team. You will experience a trip that will forever be etched in your memory.
